

HMHB Research Assistant – Graduate

Overview: Healthy Mothers, Healthy Babies Coalition of Georgia seeks several qualified applicants for the position of Graduate Student Intern – Research Assistant.

Potential Projects:

Prenatal Education Curriculum Review: The graduate research assistant will conduct outreach activities to prenatal educators and hospital systems in Georgia. The purpose of the research project is to understand the content and structure of prenatal education offered in the State. The graduate research assistant will also compare curricula when made available and draft a final summary report of findings.

State of the State of Maternal & Infant Health in Georgia: The graduate research assistant will be responsible for compiling currently available data pertaining to maternal and infant health outcomes in Georgia for HMHB's biennial State of the State of Maternal & Infant Health in Georgia report. The graduate research assistant will work with a team of experts to receive, compile and incorporate feedback and finalize the report for publication.

Required Qualifications:

- Available to fulfil a full semester internship during Spring or Summer 2018.
- Able to conduct phone surveys in English.
- Can collect and analyze qualitative and quantitative data.
- Must have excellent communications skills, written and oral.
- Ideal candidate will be well organized.
- Familiarity in working with cloud-based systems including Google Drive and DropBox.
- Must be currently enrolled in a graduate level program at the time of internship.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Demonstrates working knowledge of maternal and infant health and or public health.

To Apply: Please email your current resume or CV, a cover letter expressing your interest (body of email is fine), research writing sample and two references who can speak to the qualifications listed above, to Elise Blasingame at thecoalition@hmbga.org. Please, no phone calls.

Deadline: We request that candidate documents be submitted by January 5, 2018 for Spring and by April 13, 2018 for Summer. We will continue to take applications until the positions are filled, but those who submit their documents by the early deadline will receive priority consideration.

About HMHB: Healthy Mothers, Healthy Babies Coalition of Georgia's mission is to improve maternal and child health through advocacy, education and access to vital resources. Our vision is that every mother and child in Georgia will have access to resources for a healthier life. Learn more about HMHB by visiting us online at: www.hmhbga.org. We are an equal opportunity employer.