

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HMHB Names Jennifer Sapp of Leesburg, GA '2017 Inspiring Mother of Georgia'

Atlanta, Georgia - April 26, 2017 - On Sunday, Healthy Mothers, Healthy Babies Coalition of Georgia ("HMHB") will award six Inspiring Mothers of Georgia including Jennifer Sapp of Leesburg, GA.

"We are so privileged to honor Ms. Jennifer Sapp for her contributions to the Leesburg and surrounding communities, as well as to her family," says Elise Blasingame, executive director. "We received nominations from all over the State, and the women we read about blew us away. After a thorough blind-review of all nominees, the stories shared about Ms. Sapp's work to provide inclusive sports programs for children with disabilities really stood out to the selections committee."

"The Lord blessed me with a special needs child and I am honored he has chosen me to help touch other families in the community," says Sapp. "I am just a typical mom given a unique opportunity. The Challenger League is just as much for the parents as it for the kids to have a place to belong to. I am humbled to be selected as one of the mothers being honored."

Ms. Jennifer Sapp will be honored with five other 'Inspiring Mothers of Georgia' at the HMHB Inaugural Mother's Day Luncheon on Sunday, April 30, 2017 at the Emory Conference Center Hotel from 1PM-3PM. They will be honored alongside six First Ladies of Georgia, including Mrs. Sandra Deal, Mrs. Mary Perdue, Mrs. Shirley Miller, Mrs. Marie Barnes, Mrs. Rosalynn Carter and Mrs. Mary Beth Busbee (in memoriam) for their work to improve maternal and infant health in Georgia during their respective careers.

"We are excited to have three of the First Ladies of Georgia in attendance at this important event to honor their work and also celebrate the amazing role that mothers play across our great state!" shares Blasingame.
